Peter Meisen: Visualizing A Sustainable Future

Tuesday, March 30, 6:00 PM Potluck, 7:00 PM Talk

Mt. Diablo Unitarian Universalist Church
55 Eckley Lane, Walnut Creek, CA 94596

Potluck dinner and presentation by one of the most dynamic students of the late visionary Buckminster Fuller about linking renewables between all nations to mollify conflicts, grow economies and increase the quality of life and health for all.

Peter Meisen is a graduate of the University of California, San Diego with an Applied Mechanics and Engineering Sciences Degree. He is the founder of GENI - the Global Energy Network Institute - which focuses on the interconnection of electric power networks between nations and continents, with an emphasis on tapping abundant renewable energy resources.

Mr. Meisen speaks on the global issues of renewable energy, transmission and distribution of electricity, quality of life and its relationship to electricity, the environment and sustainable development. www.wrsc.org
